NOTICE.

It will always be for the interest of purchasers to leave the selection of varieties, as far as possible, to me, when full sets are not taken, as it is very difficult to judge of the merits of varieties by descriptions.

As every order selected is under my direct supervision, no plant is allowed to go out of my establishment unless it be well rooted and in a healthy condition, except, perhaps, occasionally, in case of new plants, where the demand has been so great that the time has not been sufficient to get them in proper condition. In all such cases, I either allow a reduction in price, or add plants in value extra to compensate.

To my Correspondents.

As I am constantly receiving orders and inquiries for Pear Trees, Shrubs, Evergreens, &c., I have made arrangements with one of our leading nurserymen, and am now ready to furnish my customers with the above, the quality of which I can recommend as second to none in the country.

SPRING CATALOGUE

OF

NEW PLANTS.

New Golden Coleus.—(Importation of 1870.)

We consider this new section of Coleus to be the best novelty we have to offer this season; grown in contrast with the dark varieties the effect in the conservatory is truly magnificent, and for bedding purposes their rare shades of color—golden bronze, carmine bronze, brownish crimson, &c.—are wonderfully effective.

Albert Victor, centre purplish red, broad yellow margin.

Her Majesty, bronzy red centre, greenish yellow margin.

Princess Royal, centre reddish bronze, light yellow edge.

Setting Sun, rich bronze crimson centre, bright golden edge.

Price, $1 each; $9 per dozen.

Newer Sorts of Coleus.—(Introduced in 1869.)

These are varieties which last season we sold at $12 per dozen, but which this year we are enabled to offer at greatly reduced rates; the varieties given below are the best of the dark colored section.

Attraction, pea-green, mottled with rich chocolate-colored spots.

Candolleii, leaves rich chocolate-crimson self-color, leaves flat and horizontal.

Excellent, deep shade of maroon, netted with light green.

Gem, rich deep brown, margined and netted with green.

Glowworm, claret-crimson, clearly defined, green edge.

Marshallii, rich chocolate purple, narrow green margin.

Perfection, ground color bronze-purple, spotted and netted with green.

Surprise, rich velvety-bronze, clearly marked margin of green.

Salute, bluish-green ground, traversed with net-work of purple.

Spangle, leaves rich green, traversed with rich crimson veins.

Telfordii aurea, deeply serrated bright golden yellow, with crimson blotch.

Van Houteii, rich deep green, speckled and splashed with crimson.

Price, 30c. each; $3 per dozen.

Coleus.—Older sorts.

Marmorata, foliage yellowish green, marbled with red.

Verschaffeltii, rich velvety crimson (finest bedding sort.)

Veitchii, leaves light green, with dark chocolate spot.

Laciniata, bright golden yellow.

Price, 25c. each; $2.50 per dozen.

Chrysanthemum Laciniatum.—Japanese Fringe Flower.

The flowers are double, nearly three inches in diameter, delicately fringed, and of the purest white. The plant is of noble and elegant appearance, and its value as a plant for winter flowers can hardly be over-estimated; by pinching the flower buds off as they show, it can be had in flower during the months of December, January and February.

Price, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Older varieties, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Euphorbia Jacquiniflora.

A well known hot-house plant, flowering in mid-winter, and from its wreathing style of flowering it is much used in holiday decorations; flowers orange scarlet.

Price, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Chinese Primrose.—Double White.

Perhaps this is the most valuable of all plants we cultivate for winter flowers, well-grown specimens from November to April, yielding often 500 flowers.

Price, from 50 cents to $1.50 each, according to size.

The Best Winter Flowering Carnations.

Extensive growing of Carnations for winter shows us that for that purpose the varieties best suited in color, and that yield the greatest profusion of bloom, are very limited—those we name below in the order of their merit.

President Degraw, pure white, occasionally shaded blush, 30c.

La Purite, carmine dwarf, profuse, 30 cents.

Edwardsii, pure white, large and perfect flower, 75 cents.

Donadi's Pride, white, tipped with deep rose, 75 cents.

Vaillante, small bright scarlet, 30 cents.

Variegated La Purite, carmine striped blush, 50 cents.

The set for $3. Those at 30 cents, $3 per dozen.

Ferns.

These beautiful foliaged plants are now getting into very general cultivation; although destitute of the gaudy colors of other flowers, their great diversity and gracefulness of foliage make them much valued as plants for baskets, vases, or rock-work, or as specimen plants for the parlor or conservatory.

Price, 30 cents to 75 cents each.

Double Crimson Sweet William.

Flowers in large corymbs; rich, dark crimson, perfectly double. Plant of strong and healthy growth.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.25 per dozen.

Heliotropes.

Duc de Lavendury, rich blush, dark eye.

Etoile de Marseilles, deep violet, white centre.

Incomparable, lilac blue.

Garibaldi, almost white.

Leopold 1st, deep violet blue.

Md. Michel, bluish violet, light centre.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Pæonias.—Chinese Herbaceous.

The Pæonia is of easy culture, and perfectly hardy in any latitude.

Price, 25 cents each.

Zonale Geranium.—Bicolor.

This is one of the best of a comparatively new type. The ground color of the flowers is nearly pure white, the centre-marking being of a rich, deep salmon shade of rose. This style of Geranium will be yet entirely new to many of our customers, and no doubt will, to such as have not seen this style, be an agreeable surprise. The leaves are lightish green, with a clearly marked dark zone.

Price, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Pansies.

Our stock of Pansies has been much improved by saving only from the best flowers, so that now a large proportion of our own seedlings are equal to European varieties.

Price, 6, 10 and 15 cents each. Finest French fancy sorts, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Delphinium Bicolor Grandiflorum.

This beautiful variety is increased by seeds, equally so as the well-known D. formosum, which it resembles in many respects, but with the improvement of having a much larger and clearer defined white centre, encircled by the richest shade of azure blue. It blooms almost without intermission from July to October, and, being entirely hardy, is a valuable acquisition to our herbaceous plants.

Large plants, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Liliums.—In variety.

Seldom, on the introduction of a class of plants, has as much interest been taken as in the case of the Japan Lily. Those named below embrace all the leading Japan sorts, and are beautiful in the extreme.

Lilium Auratum, extra selected, $2.00 each.

" " second size, $1.50 each.

" " third size, $1.00 each.

" lancifolium album (white Japan,) 50 cents each.

" " rubrum (red spotted,) 30 cents each.

" " roseum (rose spotted,) 30 cents each.

Sweet Scented Violets.

For forcing during the winter months. We need hardly state that the Violet now forms one of the principal items in the formation of winter flowers.

Price, 30 cents each; $3.00 per dozen.

A CHOICE COLLECTION OF

BASKET PLANTS.

R O S E S.

All with but few exceptions grown on their own roots, from cuttings of the young wood; they are healthy plants, that have never been forced, and are grown in pots to accommodate our sales during the months of April and May, when otherwise they would be too late to remove from the open ground.

We would here take occasion to state the great advantage to the buyer to get Roses that have been grown in pots. The fact of their having been so grown in no way affects their hardiness, but, on the contrary, enables them to grow with vigor from the time they are planted; while those lifted from the open ground take half the summer before they take root, many of them dying outright. We never sell Roses from the open ground unless specially ordered, and never do so without warning the purchaser of the risk of failure.

Purchasers will always do better, so far as possible, to leave the selection of varieties to us, not only as a rule getting better plants, but besides, getting greater distinction in varieties.

Bourbon and Bengal Roses.—Monthly.

APPOLINE, cupped carmine.	Empress Eugenie , large, deep rose.
AGRIPPINA, bright crimson.
Bourbon Queen , rich blush.	HERMOSA , pink extra.

Prairie Queen, purple, veined white.

Prairie, (Baltimore Belle,) blush white.

" (Superba,) rich blush.

" (Mrs. Hovey,) white shaded rose.

Scarlet Greville, crimson scarlet.

Extra large plants in pots, $1 each, $10.50 per dozen, except where noted.

Hybrid Perpetual Roses.

AUGUSTA MIE, deep blush, ex. MADAME PLANTIER, pure white
Black Prince, crimson maroon. (a hybrid China.)

BARON PREVOST, rich pink. MADAME C. D' ISLAY, light
Compte de Paris, rich blush. rosy blush.

Caroline de Sansal, deep blush. Madame Laffay, light crimson,
Eugene Sue, light crimson rose. very fragrant.

Geant des Batailles, scarlet Mrs. Charles Wood, brilliant crimson. red, changing to rose.

GENERAL WASHINGTON, scarlet PÆONIA, reddish crimson, crimson. extra fine.

GENERAL JACQUIMENOT, crimson scarlet. PURPLE OF ORLEANS, purple violet.

General Lane, dark rose. Pius IX, crimson violet.

JULES MARGOTTIN, bright deep crimson. Queen Victoria, pale flesh, tinted with pink.

LA REINE, satin rose. Reine des Violets, dark violet.

Louis Oudier, bright rose, beautiful form. Sydonia, light blush.

Lyon des Combats, purplish crimson. TRIOMPHE D' EXPOSITION, crimson red, ex.

Buyer's selection, 75 cents each; $7.50 per dozen. Own selection, 60 cents each; $6 per dozen.

Noisette, or Climbing Roses.—Monthly.

America, straw color, shaded purple. Rosamond, scarlet crimson.

CAROLINE MANAIS, blush white. SOLFATAIRE, deep sulphur yellow.

Glorie de Dijon, blush white, buff centre. Setina, dark rose, full ex.

Md. Longchamps, large, pure white. WASHINGTON, white immense clusters.

LAMARQUE, large, pure white. Celestina Forrester, orange yellow.

Extra large fine plants, $1 each; $9 per set.

I grow many more varieties of Roses, but those above named I consider the best for general culture.

Canna Indica.—In variety.

Plants of a variety similar to the Caladium, being grown mainly for their rich foliage, though having also the advantage of additional beauty in their flowers, varying in many shades of crimson, scarlet, orange and yellow.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Cyclamen Persicum.

As an ornamental green-house plant it is excelled by few, and its flowers as an ingredient in the formation of bouquets and baskets of cut flowers in winter is invaluable.

Large plants, $1 each; $9 per dozen.

Ageratum Mexicanum Variegatum.

A great acquisition to our variegated plants. Leaves finely variegated, yellow and green, shaded with pink. Flowers blue, as in the well-known A. Mexicanum.

Price, 25 cents each.

Aloysia Citriodora.—Lemon Verbena.

Of this well-known shrub, so indispensable for the delightful fragrance of its leaves, in the construction of bouquets, &c., we offer very fine, bushy plants.

Price, 25 cents each.

Fuchsias.

Alba Coccinea, sepals white, corolla very purple, tube streaked dark pink.

Beatrice, sepals white, tipped green, corolla purplish rose.

Catherine Purr, sepals blush, corolla scarlet.

Elm City, corolla forming crimson scarlet globular balls, double ex.

GARIBALDI, double dense blue violet corolla.

NORFOLK GIANT, immense double violet.

Prince Imperial, best dark early variety.

SNOWDROP, sepals bright scarlet, corolla white, semi-double.

STRIATA PERFECTA, double striped blue and crimson.

Sir Harry, large double violet.

Victor Emmanuel, sepals coral red, corolla fine double white.

Queen of Whites, double white corolla.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Fuchsia.—Golden Fleece.

The most beautiful of our golden-leaved varieties. It is of a dwarf and spreading habit, with a tendency to droop. From its peculiar habit of growth it will be a valuable addition to our basket plants. The flowers are coral red, produced in abundance, and contrast strikingly with the golden hue of the foliage.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Winter Flowering Fuchsias.

F. Speciosa, a well-known variety, producing large flowers two inches in length, tubes and sepals of which are blush, the corolla crimson. The single plants of this variety grown in eight or nine inch pots will produce from 300 to 500 flowers from December to May.

F. Serratifolia, an equally valuable variety for winter flowering, flowers as large, but of a color distinct from any other Fuchsia.

The tube of the flower is carmine, the tips of the sepals shading to green, corolla light scarlet with white anthers. This, though an old variety, is not so common as the preceding.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Centauria Candida.

A valuable plant to contrast with the Coleus. Leaves downy white, forming a neat, compact bush. Massed with either Coleus Atropurpureus or C. Verschaffeltii, or both, it produces a most pleasing effect.

Price, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Achyranthus Verschaffeltii, var. Gilsonii.

The great fault with the original species was the dull crimson shade, inferior to Coleus and other plants of dark foliage; but in the variety Gilsonii the color of the leaves is a carmine rather than a crimson, with the stems of a deep shade of pink, giving to the plant a bright and lively appearance, far surpassing the old variety. It is also of dwarfer and denser growth, and we consider a decided improvement, so much so that we have entirely discarded the original variety.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Anemone Japonica. — Alba and rubra.

One of the most beautiful of our hardy herbaceous plants. The plant attains a height of two feet, flowering in profusion from August to October; two varieties, white and red.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Veronicas.

A beautiful class of plants, blooming during the fall months. The flowers are borne on spikes from four to six inches in length, and are produced in great abundance, running through the various shades of purple, rose, lilac, and white.

Price, 30 cents each; $1.50 for set of seven sorts.

Scented Geraniums.

Rose , scented, (true.)	Oak Leaved , scented.
Variegated Rose , scented, 50c.	Skeleton Leaved , scented.
Lemon , scented.	Shrubland Pet , scented.
Nutmeg , scented.	Dr. Livingston , scented.
Pennyroyal , scented.	Apple , (true,) scented, 50 cents.

Price, 25 cents each, except where noted.

Pelargoniums.

We do not attempt to describe them, as the colors are so blended in this beautiful class, that any description that can be given conveys but little idea of what the variety is like.

Price, 25 to 50 cents each.

Madeira, or Mignonette Vine.

One of the finest plants for rapidly covering trellis work. Flowers feathery white, with fragrance of Mignonette.

Price, 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Gnaphalium Lanatum.

A downy white foliaged plant of creeping habit, admirably adapted for the front line of ribbon-borders, also a great acquisition to our basket plants.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Lantanas.

We have few continuous blooming plants that afford a greater variety of color than the Lantana. It is yearly becoming more extensively cultivated, so that it ranks as one of the most important plants that we grow.

Adolph Aars , canary, dark centre.	Delicatissima , deep lilac.
Alba , white.	Eugenie , rose and white.
Alba perfecta , pure white, very fine.	Flora , orange and pink.
Aurantiaca , bright orange.	Fulgens , yellow and orange.
Clotilda , pink, centre yellow.	Grand Sultan , purple & yellow.
	Hendersonii ; rose, centre white.
	Lenain , orange and carmine.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Alternanthera.

A genus of plants growing from six to twelve inches in height, of the class known as ornamental foliaged plants, to which their beautiful leaf tints well entitle them. Well adapted for baskets or vases.

Price, 25 cents each.

Astilbe Japonica.—(Spirea Japonica.)

One of the most beautiful of all hardy herbaceous plants, blooming in dense spikes of pure white feather-like flowers; height of plant one and a half to two feet. Very valuable for forcing for winter flowers.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Myrsiphyllum Asparagoides.—(Smilax.)

There is no climbing plant in cultivation that surpasses this in the graceful beauty of its foliage, and its peculiar wavy formation renders it one of the most valuable of all plants for vases or hanging baskets, as it can be used either to climb or to droop, as required; in cut flowers, particularly for wreaths, it is now considered indispensable by all florists.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Tropæolums.

Excellent plants for the flower borders in summer, blooming in profusion from June till November. Extensively used for rock-work and vases. They bloom best in poor rocky or sandy soil.

Price, 25 cents each.

Caladiums.—(In variety.)

To attempt description of the wonderful markings of the leaves of this beautiful tribe would be futile; "they must be seen to be appreciated." Suffice it to say that they assume almost every imaginable color in their variegation, of spotting, veining and marbling of the leaves.

Price, 75 cents each; $6 per dozen.

White Winter Blooming Plants.

The flowers of the plants named below are among those used principally in the formation of bouquets, &c., during the winter months.

Chrysanthemum Laciniatum, fringed white.

Eupatorium Arboreum, blush white, very profuse bloomer.

Eupatorium Conspicuum, fine white.

Eupatorium Elegans, white, large truss in bloom from January to February.

Stevia Compacta, compact truss of snowy white, from November to January.

Fine plants, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Salvia Splendens.—(Scarlet Sage.)

Strong bedding plants of this superb plant.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.25 per dozen.

Salvia Patens.

A variety well suited to contrast with the above, the flowers being of the richest shade of blue.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Bouvardias.

Are now getting to be among the most important plants cultivated for winter flowers, owing to their yearly increasing variety of color, and excellent adaptation for that purpose. They are also effective as bedding plants for the flower garden, beginning to bloom in August, and continuing until frost.

Hogarth, large flowered, rich carmine.

Laura, rose color.

Leiantha, dark, dazzling scarlet.

Large plants, price 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Lobelia Erinus.

One of the most useful plants for hanging baskets, or for the front or outside row in the "ribbon" lines. Nothing can surpass it for the beauty and profusion of its flowers, of all shades from white to the deepest blue.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.25 per dozen.

Petunias.—Double.

Eclipse, carmine.

Garnet, violet purple.

Gen. Sheridan, white marbled crimson.

Lieutenant General, crimson veined violet and white.

Mammoth, blush veined rose.

Mrs. Henderson, crimson, white and rose.

Price, 50 cents.

Hybridized Petunias.

Seedlings from the finest single and double blotched and striped varieties.

Price, 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Tritoma Uvaria, Glaucescens and Grandiflora.

Varieties of one of the most splendid of all our garden plants. The plants form flower spikes of from nine to twelve inches in length; florets scarlet, tipped with orange; flowering July to October.

Price, 75 cents each.

Double Tuberoses.—All Flowering Roots.

These popular bulbs within the past few years have been grown to an extent before unknown or unthought of.

Price, 20 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

French Hybrid Gladiolus.

The varieties of this beautiful class are now so numerous, and many of them so much resembling each other, that we do not give a descriptive list of varieties.

50 named varieties, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen. Finest Mixed Seedlings, 25 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Torrenia Asiatica.

One of the prettiest plants for vases or hanging baskets that we know of; flowers blue, of a Gloxinia-like shape.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Begonias.

Begonias are now considered indispensable as winter flowering plants, flowering profusely as they do from November until March.

Price, 30 cents each.

Clematis Lanuginosa.

This beautiful climber is of a light lilac or blue color, a shade rare in flowers.

Price, 75 cents each; $6 per dozen.

Double Zinnias.

We offer this season a particularly fine strain of this superb plant, embracing about a dozen varieties, comprising scarlet, orange, carmine, yellow, rose, &c.

Price, 10 cents each.

Lychnis Flos Cuculi, Pleno.—Double White Lychnis.

A valuable plant for summer bouquets; flowers pure white, two inches in diameter, resembling a Double Carnation. It blooms from middle of June to October—entirely hardy.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Achyranthus Aureus Reticulatus.

A "sport" from A. Verschaffeltii, which it resembles in every respect save in the leaf marking, which, instead of the dark crimson of Verschaffeltii, is light green marked with a network of yellow, though occasionally a part of a leaf will retain the crimson shade of its origin.

Price, 25 cents each.

Caladium Esculentum.

A tropical plant of the well-known family of Caladium, growing to a height of four or five feet, with corresponding breadth. The leaves are of immense size, often eighteen inches by two feet, of shield-shaped outline. As a single plant for lawns or large flower borders it has no superior.

Price, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Verbenas.

Combine the best varieties we can select from the many hundred kinds in cultivation. Our plants are always strong and healthy, and are grown in small pots, well fitted for transportation.

ADA, blush ground, deep carmine eye.

Alhambra, crimson maroon, white eye.

Ball of Fire, dazzling scarlet.

BIRD OF PARADISE, scarlet, white centre.

CAROLINA, blush, mottled and speckled crimson.

CLARA, carmine, pink and white.

Honeysuckles, four distinct varieties, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Passiflora Caerulea, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Jasminum officinale, white Jessamine,—requires protection in winter in Northern States,—50 cents each; $4.50 per doz.

Cape Jessamines.

Gardenia Florida. Gardenia Fortunii. Gardenia Grandiflora.

Large fine plants, $1 each; $9 per dozen. Small fine plants, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Zonale Geraniums.

This class of plants having proved so admirably adapted for bedding purposes in our hot and dry summers, is now cultivated in larger quantities than any other plant, with the exception, perhaps, of the Verbena.

Price, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen

Gold and Silver Geraniums.

The varieties as named below are selected from nearly fifty sorts in our collection, as being the best representatives of this deservedly popular class of plants. Although in our hot and dry summers the beautiful markings of the leaves are to a certain extent lost, yet, as a plant for greenhouse or parlor culture, nothing is more worthy of cultivation.

Attraction, leaves silver edged, distinct bronze zone.

Alma, scarlet crimson flowers, leaves dark green, silver margined.

Bijou, flowers dazzling scarlet, leaves round, silver margined.

BRONZE QUEEN, leaves yellowish brown, with dark zone, flowers crimson.

Cloth of Gold, foliage golden yellow, with dark green marking.

Flower of Spring, leaves small, beautifully margined straw color, flowers scarlet.

Glowworm, sulphur white, with bronze zone of rosy, crimson tint.

Golden Pheasant, foliage golden yellow, zoned with crimson, black and yellow.

Golden Vase, golden margined leaves, compact growth, cherry colored flowers.

Lady Cullum, improvement on Mrs. Pollock, $1.

Mrs. Pollock, price 50 cents.

MOUNTAIN OF SNOW, pure white margined foliage, scarlet flowers, splendid.

Quadricolor, flowers scarlet, leaves edged, white pink zoned, 75 cents.

Silver Queen, light green round foliage, margined white, flowers rose.

Sunset, ground color golden yellow, veined with crimson, black and green.

Italia Unita, zone bright carmine, flowers scarlet, white eye, $1.

Price, 30 cents each, $3 per dozen, except where noted.

Gazanias.

Our varieties of Gazania will be found not only distinct from, but great improvements on those we have had previously. The variegated variety is a great addition to our basket plants, as well as for flower border decoration.

Price, 25 cents each.

Dahlias.

A fine collection, comprising every shade from purest white to darkest crimson.

Price, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Plants in Special Selections.

Many of our customers being unable to determine what plants are best suited for a continuous display of flowers and foliage during the summer months, we submit the following, which we are satisfied will prove satisfactory, being our own selection, and of such plants as we grow in large quantities. A saving of 30 per cent. is made in ordering from these selections.

Flower Seeds.

My seed business, now in operation but two years, has extended far in advance of my expectations, and I feel confident in believing that but few of those who have favored me with their patronage have been dissatisfied with the prompt manner their orders have been filled, and with quality of article sold.

I sell no seeds without first testing their germinating qualities; and all such as fail, even partially, are at once rejected. From this practice I confidently assure all purchasers that there can be no failure in seeds bought from me, if properly planted.
